

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2025-EAB-0511

Reversed
Late Request for Hearing Allowed
Merits Hearing Required

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On May 6, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information to verify his identity in accordance with the Department's rules and was ineligible for benefits beginning April 27, 2025, and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # L0010603285). On May 27, 2025, decision # L0010603285 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On July 24, 2025, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the request, and on August 4, 2025 issued Order No. 25-UI-299470, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire. On August 23, 2025, claimant filed a timely application for review of Order No. 25-UI-299470 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB) that included a response to the appellant questionnaire.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's appellant questionnaire response, has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, stating why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Decision # L0010603285, mailed to claimant's address on file with the Department on May 6, 2025, stated, "You have the right to appeal our decision and request a hearing if you believe our decision is wrong. We must receive your request for a hearing no later than May 27, 2025." Exhibit 1 at 2 (emphasis in original).

(2) Claimant typically reviewed correspondence from the Department in Frances Online, but frequently had difficulty using that system. Claimant did not receive # L0010603285 by mail or view it in Frances Online, and remained unaware of its issuance through the May 27, 2025 appeal deadline.

(3) From May through July 2025, claimant called the Department approximately twelve times seeking assistance with his claim, but was unable to reach a representative until July 23, 2025. According to the representative's notes of that call, the representative described decision # L0010603285 to claimant and told him how to verify his identity and file a late request for hearing.¹

(4) On July 24, 2025, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # L0010603285.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late request for hearing is allowed, and a hearing on the merits of decision # L0010603285 is required.

ORS 657.269 states that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 states that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) states that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ended.

The request for hearing on decision # L0010603285 was due by May 27, 2025. Claimant's request for hearing was filed on July 24, 2025, and therefore was late.

Claimant wrote in his appellant questionnaire response that he "[did] not remember receiving an administrative decision" and that he experienced "multiple issues" using Frances Online, where he primarily interacted with the Department. EAB Exhibit 1 at 3. It can reasonably be inferred from this statement that claimant did not receive decision # L0010603285 in the mail, and was not able view it in Frances Online, due to circumstances beyond his reasonable control. Good cause therefore exists to extend the deadline to file the request for hearing.

These circumstances continued until July 23, 2025, when, during a telephone call with a department representative, claimant learned of decision # L0010603285 and his appeal rights. Claimant filed a late request for hearing the following day, and therefore filed it within a "reasonable time" after the circumstances that prevented filing ended. Accordingly, claimant's late request for hearing is allowed, and this matter is remanded for a hearing on the merits of decision # L0010603285.

DECISION: Order No. 25-UI-299470 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 25-UI-299470 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the order mailed to the parties after the remand hearing will return this matter to EAB.
