

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2025-EAB-0600

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On August 5, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information to verify their identity in accordance with the Department's rules and was therefore ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits effective July 27, 2025 (decision # L0012242774). On August 25, 2025, decision # L0012242774 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On September 4, 2025, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # L0012242774. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on October 20, 2025 issued Order No. 25-UI-307686, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by November 3, 2025. On November 1, 2025, claimant filed a timely response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 25-UI-307686 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, saying why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 25-UI-307686 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # L0012242774 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 states that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 states that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) states that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ended.

The request for hearing on decision # L0012242774 was due by August 25, 2025. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until September 4, 2025, the request was late.

On their response to the appellant questionnaire, claimant indicated that they failed to file a timely request for hearing because “[m]ore information was needed and [claimant] didn’t get asked to start that process until 9/22/25 at 1:36 PM.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. Claimant further explained that after they were told that more information was needed from them, an “adjudicator reached out on 9/22 and the claim was denied a few days later, hence the late appeal.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. Given that the administrative decision in this case was issued on August 5, 2025, and that claimant filed their request for hearing on September 4, 2025 (both of which occurred prior to the events claimant described in their questionnaire response), it appears that claimant was mistakenly referring to a different matter in their questionnaire response.

Department records show that on September 29, 2025, the Department issued a different administrative decision on claimant’s work separation (decision # L0013285058), that claimant filed a timely request for hearing on that decision, and that matter has since been referred to the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) for a hearing. This appears to be the matter to which claimant was referring in their questionnaire response.

As such, more information is necessary to determine whether claimant’s late request for hearing in this matter (regarding their identity verification) should be allowed. On remand, the ALJ should inquire as to when, if at all, claimant received decision # L0012242774; if they did not receive it prior to the timely filing deadline, what caused this delay; and, in either case, what caused claimant to file their request for hearing on September 4, 2025, as opposed to some earlier date.

Order No. 25-UI-307686 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0012242774.

DECISION: Order No. 25-UI-307686 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

D. Hettle and A. Steger-Bentz;
S. Serres, not participating.

DATE of Service: November 21, 2025

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 25-UI-307686 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the order mailed to the parties after the remand hearing will return this matter to EAB.
