EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2025-EAB-0667

Reversed
Timely Request for Hearing
Merits Hearing Required

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On August 12, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant had failed to verify his identity in accordance with the Department's rules and was therefore ineligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits effective August 3, 2025 (decision # L0012309383). On September 2, 2025, decision # L0012309383 became final without claimant having filed a recognized request for hearing. On September 9, 2025, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the September 9, 2025 request, and on October 23, 2025, issued Order No. 25-UI-308170 as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by November 6, 2025. On November 4, 2025, claimant filed an appellant questionnaire response and an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's appellant questionnaire response. It has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1 and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, saying why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Decision # L0012309383, mailed to claimant's address on file with the Department on August 12, 2025, stated, "You have the right to appeal our decision and request a hearing if you believe our decision is wrong. We must receive your request for a hearing no later than September 2, 2025." Exhibit 1 at 2 (emphasis in original). Decision # L0012309383 also said that a request for hearing could be filed using Frances Online, or by telephone, by mail, or in person. Exhibit 1 at 2.

(2) On August 12, 2025, claimant contacted the Department by telephone about decision # L0012309383. The representative's notes from that call stated: "Claimant called verified 5 pts of Identification. Claimant has a Failure to Provide on his claim. Let him know he can go to a WorkSource office near him (Stockton, CA) and register with them, take a screenshot of his registration with them. They may be able to confirm his ID, and he can send acceptable ID (see website) through Web Notice, and include a selfie with his picture ID, thus 2 primary ID or 1 primary and 2 secondary pieces. Claimant seemed to understand what his next steps are.”¹

(3) On September 9, 2025, claimant filed a late request for hearing which said, in its entirety, “I didnt do the verification in time or the registration for the Cal Gov Job in time. Im really sorry.” Exhibit 2 at 4. Claimant attached to the request copies of his birth certificate, driver license, and Social Security card. Exhibit 2 at 6-7.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # L0012309383, and a merits hearing is required.

ORS 657.269 states that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 states that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) states that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ended.

Under OAR 471-040-0005(2)(a) (July 15, 2018), an individual may request a hearing on an administrative decision related to payment of benefits by “mail, fax, e-mail, or other means as designated by [the] Employment Department[.]” A request for hearing may also be filed “[i]n person at any publicly accessible Employment Department office in Oregon.” OAR 471-040-0005(2)(b). Use of forms provided by the Department or similar offices for requesting a hearing is not required so long as the individual “expresses a present intent to appeal and it can be determined what issue or decision is being appealed.” OAR 471-040-0005(1).

The request for hearing on decision # L0012309383 was due by September 2, 2025. The request for hearing claimant filed on September 9, 2025 was therefore late. However, on August 12, 2025, claimant spoke with a representative by telephone about decision # L0012309383. Decision # L0012309383 stated that a request for hearing could be made by telephone, and under OAR 471-0400-0005(1), expressing a present intent to appeal and identifying the issue or decision to be appealed constitutes a request for hearing. It can reasonably be inferred from the representative’s notes of the call that claimant expressed disagreement with the administrative decision’s indefinite denial of benefits for failing to verify his identity, and he was seeking relief from the effects of that decision. Moreover, the information provided by claimant during the call was substantially similar to that he provided in the September 9, 2025 filing, which was recognized as a request for hearing.

Under these circumstances, claimant’s August 12, 2025 telephone call to the Department expressed a present intent to appeal decision # L0012309383 and therefore constituted a request for hearing under the rule. Because the request was made the same day decision # L0012309383 was issued, the request was timely filed. Accordingly, the matter is remanded for a hearing on the merits of decision # L0012309383.

DECISION: Order No. 25-UI-308170 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Serres and A. Steger-Bentz;
D. Hettle, not participating.

DATE of Service: December 8, 2025

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 25-UI-308170 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the order mailed to the parties after the remand hearing will return this matter to EAB.
