

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2025-EAB-0806

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On October 14, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information to verify their identity and was therefore ineligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits effective October 5, 2025, and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # L0013424719). On November 3, 2025, decision # L0013424719 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On December 10, 2025, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the request, and on December 16, 2025 issued Order No. 25-UI-314498, dismissing the request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by December 30, 2025. On December 22, 2025, claimant filed an appellant questionnaire response and an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's appellant questionnaire response, has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, saying why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 25-UI-314498 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing to determine whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0013424719.

ORS 657.269 states that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 states that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) states that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ended.

The request for hearing on decision # L0013424719 was due by November 3, 2025. Claimant's request for hearing was filed on December 10, 2025, and was therefore late. Claimant's appellant questionnaire response suggests that good cause may exist to extend the filing deadline.

Where the appellant questionnaire asked, "On what date (mm/dd/yy) did you receive the administrative decision?" claimant wrote: "12/7/25." EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. If claimant's receipt of decision # L0013424719 was delayed beyond the filing deadline, this may have been a factor beyond claimant's reasonable control that prevented timely filing of a request for hearing. However, much of the other information provided by claimant in the appellant questionnaire response addressed why claimant failed to complete identity verification by the deadline imposed for that task, rather than why the request for hearing was filed late. See EAB Exhibit 1 at 1-3. It is therefore somewhat unclear if claimant was asserting that decision # L0013424719, as opposed to some other correspondence, was received on December 7, 2025, and, if so, what delayed receipt of the administrative decision. Further development of the record is therefore warranted to determine whether the late request for hearing should be allowed.

On remand, inquiry should include whether claimant elected to receive correspondence through Frances Online instead of, or in addition to, by mail; when claimant received decision # L0013424719 and, if receipt was delayed beyond the November 3, 2025 filing deadline, what factors likely caused the delay; and whether any other factors prevented timely filing. Further, if good cause is found to extend the filing deadline, additional inquiry should be made as to whether claimant filed the late request for hearing within a "reasonable time" after the factors that prevented timely filing ended.

For these reasons, Order No. 25-UI-314498 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing to determine whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0013424719.

DECISION: Order No. 25-UI-314498 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: January 27, 2026

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 25-UI-314498 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the order mailed to the parties after the remand hearing will return this matter to EAB.
