

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2026-EAB-0098

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On July 15, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information to verify their identity and therefore was ineligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits effective July 14, 2025 and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # L0011838786). On August 4, 2025, decision # L0011838786 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On August 9, 2025, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the request, and on January 12, 2026 issued Order No. 26-UI-316716, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by January 26, 2026. On January 30, 2026, claimant filed a late appellant questionnaire response and a timely application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's narrative appellant questionnaire response, has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, saying why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 26-UI-316716 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing to determine whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0011838786.

ORS 657.269 states that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 states that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) states that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ended.

The request for hearing on decision # L0011838786 was due by August 4, 2025. Claimant's request for hearing was filed on August 9, 2025, and was therefore late. Claimant wrote in their appellant questionnaire response, “I was mailed a letter on July 15th 2025 which I was to review and respond to before August 4, 2025. Unfortunately, due to my mail being moved, I did not read that letter until the week after the mentioned date.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant explained that one or more roommates had “moved” mail addressed to claimant, including this administrative decision, before claimant “had the opportunity to get to it.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. This may have been a factor beyond claimant’s reasonable control that prevented timely filing of a request for hearing. Further development of the record is warranted to determine whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed.

On remand, inquiry should be made into whether claimant elected to receive claim correspondence through Frances Online in addition to by mail; what precautions claimant took, if any, to prevent movement of their mail by others; when claimant first saw or otherwise became aware of the envelope containing decision # L0011838786 and when he read the decision; and whether any other factors prevented timely filing of a request for hearing. If good cause is found to extend the filing deadline, claimant’s late request for hearing was filed within seven days of the original filing deadline, and was therefore necessarily filed within a “reasonable time” after the factors that prevented timely filing ended.

For these reasons, Order No. 26-UI-316716 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing to determine whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0011838786.

DECISION: Order No. 26-UI-316716 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: March 12, 2026

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 26-UI-316716 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the order mailed to the parties after the remand hearing will return this matter to EAB.
