

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2026-EAB-0141

Late Request for Hearing Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On March 4, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to confirm their identity as required by the Department and was therefore ineligible to receive benefits effective February 23, 2025 and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # L0009627557). On March 24, 2025, decision # L0009627557 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On November 10, 2025 claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on January 29, 2026 issued Order No. 26-UI-318471, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 12, 2026. On February 10, 2026, claimant filed a timely response to the appellant questionnaire and application for review of Order No. 26-UI-318471 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's appellant questionnaire response, which has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, saying why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 26-UI-318471 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing to determine whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0009627557.

ORS 657.269 states that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 states that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) states that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ended.

The request for hearing on decision # L0009627557 was due by March 24, 2025. Claimant's request for hearing was filed on November 10, 2025, and was therefore late. Claimant wrote in their appellant questionnaire response, "I never received anything. When I called in that is when I was told." EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

If claimant filed their request for hearing late due to not having timely received decision # L0009627557, or never having received the decision with its explanation of claimant's appeal rights and how to appeal the decision, claimant may have failed to file a timely request for hearing due to factors beyond their control. Further development of the record is warranted to determine whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed.

On remand, the ALJ should inquire as to when claimant first received or otherwise became aware of decision # L0009627557 and their appeal rights and how to appeal; what efforts they made to file the request for hearing when they become aware of the decision and their appeal rights; what other difficulties, if any, delayed their filing the request; what ultimately led them to file the request when they did; and any other necessary inquiry to determine whether claimant filed within a "reasonable time" after the factors that prevented timely filing ended.

For these reasons, Order No. 26-UI-318471 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing to determine whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0009627557.

DECISION: Order No. 26-UI-318471 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.
