

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2026-EAB-0314

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On November 13, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that the employer discharged claimant for misconduct connected with work and claimant therefore was disqualified from receiving benefits effective October 19, 2025 (decision # L0014045510).¹ On December 3, 2025, decision # L0014045510 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On January 27, 2026, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on March 12, 2026, issued Order No. 26-UI-323407, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by March 26, 2026. On March 31, 2026, claimant filed a timely application for review of Order No. 26-UI-323407 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB) that included a response to the appellant questionnaire.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, stating why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 26-UI-323407 is set aside, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing, or a late hearing request that should be allowed, and if so, the merits of decision # L0014045510.

ORS 657.269 states that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 states that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) states that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ended. Under OAR 471-040-0005(1) (July 15, 2018), "A Request for hearing may be filed on forms provided by the Employment Department or similar offices in other states. Use of the form is not required provided the party specifically requests a hearing or otherwise expresses a present intent to appeal and it can be determined what issue or decision is being appealed."

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing on decision # L0014045510 was December 3, 2025. The information contained in claimant's appellant questionnaire response states that claimant received decision # L0014045510 on November 17, 2025. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. The response further states that claimant sent "messages . . . via Frances online asking for help on 12/01/25", which was before the December 3, 2025 deadline to timely appeal. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. This information raises the possibility that claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # L0014045510 on December 1, 2025. A remand hearing is therefore warranted for further development of the record.

On remand, the ALJ should ask questions to clarify and elaborate upon the nature, scope, and timing of the messages claimant sent via Frances Online on December 1, 2025 with the goal of determining whether, pursuant to OAR 471-040-0005(1), any of claimant's messages amounted to a request for hearing on decision # L0014045510 or otherwise expressed a present intent to appeal the decision on that date. If the record on remand shows that claimant did not file a request for hearing before the December 3, 2025 deadline, the ALJ should ask questions to develop whether claimant had good cause to file the hearing request late on January 27, 2026. To this end, the ALJ should ask questions to determine whether claimant may have mistakenly believed that their hearing request was timely filed as of December 1, 2025 and, if so, why claimant filed a hearing request on the administrative decision on January 27, 2026.

Order No. 26-UI-323407 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing, or a late hearing request that should be allowed, and if so, the merits of decision # L0014045510.

DECISION: Order No. 26-UI-323407 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: May 14, 2026

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 26-UI-323407 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the order mailed to the parties after the remand hearing will return this matter to EAB.
