

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2026-EAB-0486

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 26, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant received regular unemployment insurance (regular UI), Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC), and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits to which they were not entitled and assessing an overpayment of $19,107 in combined regular UI, PEUC, and FPUC benefits that claimant was required to repay to the Department (decision # 100030). On May 16, 2022, decision # 100030 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing.

On January 5, 2025, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # 100030. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on January 20, 2026 issued Order No. 26-UI-317351, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 3, 2026. On February 9, 2026, Order No. 26-UI-317351 became final without claimant having filed an appellant questionnaire response or an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

On February 12, 2026, claimant filed a late appellant questionnaire response. ALJ Scott reviewed the response, and on February 26, 2026 issued Order No. 26-UI-321679, concluding that the questionnaire response would not be considered because it was filed late, re-dismissing claimant's late request for hearing, and leaving decision # 100030 undisturbed. On March 18, 2026, Order No. 26-UI-321679 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with EAB. On May 8, 2026, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 26-UI-321679.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is the written statement submitted with their late application for review, has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, stating why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 26-UI-321679, mailed to claimant on February 26, 2026, stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 26-UI-321679 at 2. Order No. 26-UI-321679 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before March 18, 2026 to be timely.”

(2) On March 18, 2026, Order No. 26-UI-321679 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with EAB. On May 8, 2026, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 26-UI-321679. Claimant included a written statement with their late application for review, but it did not describe circumstances preventing claimant from filing the application for review on time.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late application for review of Order No. 26-UI-321679 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ended. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 26-UI-321679 was due by March 18, 2026. Because claimant did not file their application for review until May 8, 2026, the application for review was late. Claimant provided a written statement with the application for review. However, claimant’s written statement did not describe circumstances preventing claimant from filing the application for review on time. Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for the late application for review, and claimant’s late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed May 8, 2026 is dismissed. Order No. 26-UI-321679 remains undisturbed.

NOTE: If paying back your overpayment would be a financial hardship, you may request an overpayment waiver. The Department may forgive the debt and stop collection efforts if you meet certain requirements. If you apply for a waiver but do not qualify for the waiver, other relief may be available. Other relief may include a temporary pause in collection efforts or a limit on how much your current benefits may be reduced due to the overpayment. It is important to apply for a waiver as soon as possible because waivers are not retroactive. This means that if the Department grants the waiver, you will not receive a refund of payments you have already made on the overpayment.

The Overpayment Waiver Application is available for download at <https://unemployment.oregon.gov/uploads/docs/FORM129-EN.pdf>
