

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2026-EAB-0514

Affirmed
Ineligible Weeks 12-26 through 17-26

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 14, 2026, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not able to work or actively seeking work, and was therefore ineligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits effective March 22, 2026, and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # L0017050080). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On May 7, 2026, ALJ Laurie-Gardiner conducted a hearing at which the Department failed to appear, and on May 8, 2026 issued Order No. 26-UI-329729, modifying decision # L0017050080 by concluding that claimant was not able to work or actively seeking work during the weeks of March 22, 2026 through May 2, 2026 (weeks 12-26 through 17-26), and was therefore ineligible to receive benefits for those weeks. On May 15, 2026, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's argument in reaching this decision. As she did during the hearing, claimant asserted in her argument that ORS 657.155(1)(a) authorizes a "Medical Inability-to-Work Waiver" that would exempt her from the requirement of ORS 657.155(1)(c) that all claimants be able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work as a condition of benefit eligibility during each week claimed. Claimant's Argument at 1. As the order under review correctly concluded, such waiver authority does not exist.

ORS 657.155(1)(a) requires that claimants be registered for work and report at an employment office in accordance with the Department's rules as a condition of benefit eligibility during each week claimed, but allows the Director, "by rule, to waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this subsection" in certain circumstances. Therefore, the waiver authority claimant refers to applies only to those two requirements—being registered for work and reporting to an employment office—and not to requirements in other portions of the statute, such as the able, available, and actively seeking work requirements contained in subsection (1)(c). There are no statutory provisions that exempt individual claimants from the requirement of having the physical and mental ability to work during a week claimed, even in the case of prolonged, severe illness. As such, the order under review correctly concluded that claimant was ineligible to receive benefits for weeks 12-26 through 17-26 because she was not able to work or actively seeking work during those weeks.

ADOPTION OF HEARING ORDER: EAB considered the entire hearing record, including witness testimony and any exhibits admitted as evidence. EAB agrees with Order No. 26-UI-329729’s findings of fact, reasoning, and conclusion that claimant was not able to work or actively seeking work during weeks 12-26 through 17-26 and is ineligible for benefits for those weeks. Order No. 26-UI-329729 is adopted. See ORS 657.275(2).

DECISION: Order No. 26-UI-329729 is affirmed.
