

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2026-EAB-0670

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On June 2, 2026, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant voluntarily quit work without good cause and was therefore disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective April 5, 2026 (decision # L0017836508).¹ Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On July 8, 2026, ALJ Parnell conducted a hearing, and on July 13, 2026 issued Order No. 26-UI-334844, affirming decision # L0017836508. On July 25, 2026, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's argument in reaching this decision. Claimant asserted in the argument, as he did at hearing, that he faced a grave situation at the time he quit work because he had reason to believe that he would be discharged on April 7, 2026, for reasons not amounting to misconduct, if he did not resign by that date. Claimant's Written Argument at 3. For the reasons more fully explained in the order under review, the record does not support this assertion.

To summarize, on April 3, 2026, the employer presented claimant with a written directive to draft a "Commitment Plan" concerning how he intended to improve his performance, and to submit it for consideration by 9:00 a.m. on April 7, 2026. Exhibit 1 at 22. The directive explained that if the employer did not find the plan acceptable, claimant would have the option to resign or face pre-discharge proceedings at that time. The record therefore shows that claimant did not face an imminent or inevitable discharge on the morning of April 7, 2026, because claimant may have been able to avoid the initiation of pre-discharge proceedings by submitting the plan. Claimant argued that he resigned instead of submitting the plan because he "was never told anything about what would happen if the Plan were acceptable." Claimant's Written Argument at 3.

¹ Decision # L0017836508 stated that claimant was denied benefits from April 5, 2026 to April 3, 2027. However, decision # L0017836508 should have said that claimant was disqualified from receiving benefits beginning Sunday, April 5, 2026 and until he earned four times his weekly benefit amount. See ORS 657.176.

However, the directive stated that it was being issued “[f]or consideration of continued employment,” and that the process would “either lead to improved performance or termination.” Exhibit 1 at 22. Thus, claimant should have known that the possible outcomes of submitting the plan were the following: the employer rejecting the plan; the employer accepting the plan, but weeks or months later determining that claimant’s performance had not improved; or, the employer accepting the plan and claimant maintaining his employment indefinitely. With the former two possible outcomes, claimant would have then faced the choice of resigning or facing pre-discharge proceedings, and therefore would have been in the same position as he was immediately prior to the plan’s due date. Because submitting the plan could not have made claimant any worse off, but could potentially have extended his employment indefinitely or for a significant period of time, a reasonable and prudent person of normal sensitivity, exercising ordinary common sense, would not have left work before submitting the plan and discussing it with the employer. Accordingly, at the time claimant quit work, he did not face a situation of such gravity that he had no reasonable alternative but to leave work, and he therefore quit without good cause.

ADOPTION OF HEARING ORDER: EAB considered the entire hearing record, including witness testimony and any exhibits admitted as evidence. EAB agrees with Order No. 26-UI-334844’s findings of fact, reasoning, and conclusion that claimant voluntarily quit work without good cause. Order No. 26-UI-334844 is adopted. See ORS 657.275(2).

DECISION: Order No. 26-UI-334844 is affirmed.
