

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2026-EAB-0746

Late Application for Review Dismissed
No Justiciable Controversy

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 19, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit work for the employer without good cause and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective November 2, 2025 (decision # L0014661463).¹ Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On February 5, 2025, ALJ Hall conducted a hearing, and on February 13, 2026 issued Order No. 26-UI-320332, reversing decision # L0014661463 by concluding that claimant quit work with good cause and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. On March 5, 2026, Order No. 26-UI-320332 became final without either party having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 18, 2026, claimant filed a late application for review with EAB.

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB did not consider claimant's written argument it was not relevant and material to EAB's determination of whether to allow claimant's application for review. See OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's application for review of Order No. 26-UI-320332 presents no justiciable controversy and is dismissed.

On August 18, 2026, claimant filed with EAB a late application for review of an order that was fully favorable to claimant. The order was favorable to claimant because the order held that claimant quit work with good cause and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. Oregon courts follow the principle that a review on appeal may only be provided for justiciable controversies. See, e.g., Gortmaker v. Seaton, 252 Or. 440, 442, 450 P.2d 547 (1969). A justiciable controversy exists when the interests of the parties to the action conflict with each other, and the appeal will have some practical effect on the rights of the parties to the controversy. Barcik v. Kubiacyk, 321 Or 174, 895 P2d 765 (1995). To show a practical effect on their rights, an appellant must seek “substantive relief” through their appeal. Krisor v. Henry, 256 Or. App. 56, 300 P.3d 199 (Or. Ct. App. 2013).

Claimant did not assign error to any portion of Order No. 26-UI-320332, did not request reversal of any portion of the order, and alleged no facts entitling claimant to further relief in this matter. Because EAB’s review of this matter could not provide substantive relief to the appellant, such review would have no practical effect on the appellant’s rights. Accordingly, there is no justiciable controversy before EAB based upon claimant’s application for review. Because the case before EAB presents no justiciable controversy, the application for review of Order No. 26-UI-320332 is dismissed and Order No. 26-UI-320332 remains undisturbed.

DECISION: The application for review filed August 18, 2026 is dismissed. Order No. 26-UI-320332 remains undisturbed.
